

PUBLISHED SINCE 1914

heritage

SOUTHWEST Jewish Press

AIRBORNE — The Keshet Chaim Dance Ensemble has returned after a successful engagement at the Club Med in Mexico, site of the above photo.

★★★

The Keshet Chaim Dance Ensemble has returned from a successful engagement in Mexico, where the group entertained at Club Med in Sonora Bay. Genie Benson reports that besides spouses, the dancers were accompanied by Cantor Nathan Lam and the singing duo of Ruben Merci and Jimmy Gamliel.

Scheduled originally for only one night, the show was held over an additional three nights by popular demand. The engagement ended with a Shabbat celebration, in which many of the guests joined, and a giant hora.

August 16, 1991